Voter Eligibility

GENERAL VOTING GUIDELINES

- Must be a member – one share one vote.
- Must be over the age of 18 years.

VOTING ON BEHALF OF A CORPORATION OR ASSOCIATION

Corporate Resolution – Business members of the Credit Union must appoint a representative to cast a vote on behalf of the organization. Corporate voting resolutions submitted for past votes remain in effect until they are cancelled or revoked in writing by the Company/Association.

In accordance with the voting notice, all Corporate Resolutions were to be received by Friday, April 5, 2024 at 12:00 p.m.

A member that is a corporation or association must appoint a representative to vote on its behalf by completing a resolution [refer to: subsection 68(1) of the Act].

TYPES OF CORPORATIONS OR ASSOCIATIONS

- Registered corporations, for example:
 - » ABC Sewing Inc., ABC Sewing Ltd., ABC Sewing Corporation; ABC Sewing Corp.
- Non-profit organizations - active and organized sports teams.
- Where there are several sub accounts under the same org record (applies to corporations and non-profit organizations) that entity has one vote, for example:
 - » XYZ Church Ltd may have a separate missions account, youth group account, ladies group account or Sunday School account, they are deemed to be one entity – under the primary account holder, in this case XYZ Church Ltd. is allowed one vote.
- Sole Proprietorship/Trading As Businesses, for example:
 - » Joe Smith operating or trading as Joe's Hauling.
- Partnerships, for example:
 - » Joe Smith and Jane Doe operating or trading as J & J Lawn Care

Proxy Voting

- Access Credit Union's by-laws do not allow voting by proxy.

TRUST ACCOUNTS

- Not eligible for voting
 - » The trustee cannot vote on behalf of the beneficial owner as that would be deemed to be voting by proxy

ESTATE ACCOUNTS

- Not eligible to vote – executors would be deemed to vote by proxy and the by-laws do not allow a proxy vote

POWERS OF ATTORNEY

- Powers of attorney may vote on behalf of another member if the Credit Union has received a copy of the power of attorney document and the document specifies that they may vote on behalf of the Member.

NEW MEMBERSHIPS AND VOTING ELIGIBILITY

- The cut-off for voting eligibility is governed by Section 62 of the Act, which states that the record date for determining which members are entitled to receive notice of a meeting of members is the closing of business on the day immediately preceding the day on which notice is given.
- Notice will be posted in the local newspapers, therefore in order to be eligible to vote the membership must have been opened by the close of March 18th, 2024.

MINORS' VOTING RIGHTS

- No member who is under the age of 18 may vote [subsection 67(1)].
